

14 Feb 2012
14.30 - 17.30

Alan Baxter Gallery
75 Cowcross Street
London. EC1M 6EL

The Association of Consultant Architects

ACAPAG Planning Update: PLANNING AND LOCALISM - A Love-in for St Valentines Day

The highly successful ACAPAG seminars return with an essential planning update in February. This seminar will feature:

Introduction and general update

- The Localism Act: where we're at and what it means
- Neighbourhood Planning – how it should work
- New Homes Bonus: using the system

Replacement policies and Planning for Growth

- The National Planning Policy Framework and PPG/PPS
- Community Infrastructure Levy and the future of section 106
- Use Classes review and business change to residential

What happens next...

- BIDs, democracy and engaging with the Community
- Town centres and changes of use
- Enforcement and Probity
- The end of Regional Spatial Strategies: Local Enterprise Partnerships

Opportunities for Architects in the future planning system

- Pre-apps, 1APP, legal challenges
- Conservation and self-certification of heritage assets
- The future of Planning and Competition (and mediation?)

Speakers:

Andrew Rogers

Andrew Rogers: Planning

Brian Waters

BWCP

Who is it for?

- all architects in practice including newly qualified architects and those architects returning to work
- practice managers
- clients
- planning officers

SEMINAR PRICES:

ACA/SCLA/CIAT Members
Non Members

£35.00 + VAT
£55.00 + VAT

ACA STUDENT MEMBERS:
NON ACA STUDENT MEMBERS

£5.00 + VAT
£8.00 + VAT

BOOKING FORM

Name: _____

Job Title _____

Organisation _____

Address _____

Telephone _____ Email _____

I enclose my cheque for £ + £ VAT made payable to The Association of Consultant Architects.
Please invoice me for £

No refunds are available for cancellations. Fees cannot be transferred although a replacement may be sent.

Please return to: The Association of Consultant Architects, 60 Godwin Road, Bromley, Kent. BR2 9LQ or email to: office@acarchitects.co.uk Telephone/Fax: 020 8466 9079

www.ACArchitects.co.uk