SEMINAR CONTENT:-

PLANNING LEGISLATION UPDATES (the practical bit) including

- The new permitted development rules
- Update on how the Planning Bill is progressing
- Recent appeal decisions
- The Killian/Pretty and CLG reviews on planning bureaucracy

MAKING A PLANNING APPLICATION UPDATES (the frustrating bit) including

- 1APP: latest on the mandatory nationwide application forms
- Validation problems and the Government's response

PLANNING AND ITS FUTURE (the speculative bit)

- A re-launch of the ACA's Planning Manifesto, which was partly used as a pattern for the manifesto recently published by the British Property Federation
- Planning Portal, e-planning and Building Regulations
- Resources, rehabilitation, recession and restructuring

SPEAKERS:

Andrew Rogers and Brian Waters are leading members of the ACA's Planning Advisory Group (ACAPAG) and both are architect planners. Through their work with other members they actively involve the ACA with current planning legislation by responding to Government consultations and liaising with those responsible for developing planning legislation. They have just made a programme on permitted development [the new GPDO] for the NBS's Planning Channel and, if available, a rough-cut will be shown.
